Dear Mrs. Leach:

This is in answer to your request for research on the Studwell and King families of Huron county. I don't think there is as much mystery about this problem as what you have thought. The main problem is a careless use of given names by some of your ancestors and the fact that you took the biography saying "Spring of 1853" as gospel. You see, Spring of 1853 and January of 1852 are pretty close, aren't they? The person who gave that information may been speaking many years after the fact. The handwritten marriage record at the courthouse is probably supposed to be Hannahette, but looks like Harriette or whatever when you look at the writing. So, the January 1852 record you have is the correct one.

The Norwalk Reflector newspaper of 3 Feb 1852 and the Norwalk Experiment newspaper of 10 Feb 1852 report the marriage of Samuel A. King of Townsend township to Miss Hannahette Studwell of Hartland. This took place 29 Jan 1852 at the Mansion House Hotel in Norwalk. So, we have evidence of the marriage of Samuel A. King and Hannahette Studwell.

I did not examine the original Will of william Studwell, but the transcribed copy gives one of his daughters as Henrietta. Apparently this is Hannahette, since she is definitely a daughter of William. do you have a copy of the Will? Enclosed is a copy taken from the Partition Records of Huron County which shows Hannah and Samuel King of Avoca, Iowa, as defendants and owners of 1/6 of the William Studwell land in Hartland.

Also enclosed is a copy of a deed from Rachel and Rebecca Studwell whereby they sold their interests in the farm to Samuel Lockwood as a trustee. The deed is complicated, and probably was some way to pay off some bills without losing the place. You'll see, though, that Hannah King was one of the parties to it.

I believe all of these things definitely link her to William Studwell and establish her parentage. William Studwell bought this land 30 june 1835 for $1,263. He was "of Hartland" when he bought it from Ezra B. and Sophronia Gillett. That's recorded in deed volume 10, page 123. About the same time there was a Joseph Studwell/Steadwell in Fitchville township not far south of Hartland. Perhaps he was a brother to William. I didn't check on him any further.

The Studwells are buried in the Hartland Ridge Cemetery on DeRussey Road about two miles north of the farm. This cemetery is south of Rte. 18 about eight miles southeast of Norwalk. These stones are there: Elizabeth, wife of William, died 15 Sept 1840 age 42; Rachel M., died 7 Sept 1871 age 54 yrs-1 month-2 days; William died 11 August 1843 aged 66 years; and William died 28 April 1862 aged 44 yrs-11 mo-19days. I presume William and Rachel are children of William and Elizabeth.

Huron County Historian

Well, I ran over a little on that first page. I'm still getting used to this word processor. It's now December 29th and I have time to finish this. I dealt pretty much with Studwell in the first part, and will give you what I have on the Kings....which isn't much.

My big mystery is: where was Samuel A. King in the 1850 census? I am wondering now if he might have gone to California to hunt for gold, and perhaps was there when the census was taken. There were several parties of Hartland and Fitchville men who went at different times. The 1852 marriage notice says he was of Townsend township, but the only King in Townsend in 1850 (as you know) was John G. King, a mason and stonecutter by trade. You don't list a John King as brother to Samuel, and I believe this John G. was from Berlin township of Erie county originally. He spent the rest of his life in Norwalk and area, and his son Rodney became quite a stone artisan. Rodney sculpted two of the monuments which are on the Gettysburg battlefield in Pennsylvania.

There was the John King of Hartland township who married Mrs. Anna Storrs on 17 Nov 1833(Reflector newspaper of 26 Nov 1833). She was the widow of Libbeus Storrs who died 6 Sept 1831 aged 45 in Hartland (Reflector of 12 Sept 1831). I don't know what happened to him by 1850, but Anna died about 1853 and willed all of her property to Mrs. Dorcas Phillips Clawson, who cared for her in her last illness. No family is mentioned in her Will. The land she and Libbeus owned was sold after his death in a Court action by her and the children, but she had a dower right in the land. I'll look at the deeds tomorrow at the Courthouse and see whether John is mentioned anywhere. I do know that the Storrs were buried on the farm and the graves were plowed over years ago. There are no King burials with markers in the Hartland Ridge Cemetery and of course there are no burial records before about 1910.

That's my report for now. We might go to Fort Wayne, Indiana, soon to research at the library and I'll check the California 1850 census to see whether Samuel was there. Perhaps you have access to that census, too, and will want to check it yourself.

I've used the $7.00 you sent plus $3.50 more (½ hour) and $10.00 for the enclosed copies. I hope I've explained everything all right.

Sincerely yours,

Henry R. Timman

Dear Mrs. Leach:

This is in answer to your last letters, and will address several of the questions posed - but probably won't resolve all of them. First we'll talk about John King.

He first shows up in the tax records of Hartland Township in 1834, paying taxes on cattle. These could be cattle belonging to Anna Storrs King. In 1838, neither John nor any Storrs is listed, nor is he listed in any neighboring township. He's not listed in 1840, but Polly Storrs is taxed for a horse and a cow. She was a daughter of Anna Storrs King. In 1841, John King is listed, but he's missing in 1842. He's then listed again in 1843 thru 1847, but is not listed again in 1848, 1849, or 1850. So, he must have left Hartland about 1847.

Anna and John are not here in the 1850 census. I had searched and searched for them, and then your letter came saying they were apparently in Indiana. Anna was back in Huron County by 20 March 1852 when she made a noncupative Will, leaving all her property to Dorcas Clawson, who was caring for her. The Will was proved on 11 Sept 1852 in Probate Court. There was no mention of her children, but then they had gotten the farm land which belonged to Libbeus Storrs.

John King was mentioned in those transactions because he was Anna's husband and had to sign the deeds with her. I also searched the Common Pleas Court index and found that in February of 1840 there was a suit against John King for bastardy, brought by Fanny Francis. Of course, there's no proof of who this John King was. The suit was dismissed and Fanny had to pay the costs. That's listed in Common Pleas Journal #6, Page 429. You had also asked about Jay being a nickname for John. It seems to have come into popular use about 1850. I had two different families where a great uncle was named Jay about 1845 and I've seen the name elsewhere, but I don't know what inspired it.

If you want, we can check the census of Indiana/Illinois for 1850, when we go to a larger library. There is one other thing I wanted to mention concerning the Storrs family. In 1859 Daniel F. Storrs sold the farm land of Libbeus Storrs in Hartland to John C. Ransom. (Lot 31, section 2) He deeded all of the land except the northwest corner where his parents were buried, and that was to kept fenced by the Storrs family. Those graves were plowed over years ago. Polly Storrs married a man named Lockwood and they lived in the old Storrs log cabins across the road until 1900 or after.

One final word on Kings. In Vol. 17, p. 589 of deeds there is a quit claim deed to William King on 4.14 acres in lot 7, sec. 4 of Hartland. I don't think this is your family, but I wanted to mention it. On 2 June 1865, Asenath and John King of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich; Noble and Polly King, and Lanson and Betsey King all of Huron County released their interest. This land was near the village of Olena and not near where John King lived.

Now I'll turn to the Studwells. I thought I'd gotten a copy of William's Will, but didn't. Will send it the next time. Enclosed you will find a of copies. These deal with two estates - William the elder and William the younger, who died in 1862. The estate of William the elder was then closed up and an estate opened for William the younger in order to sell the land. Since William the younger wasn't married, his brothers and sisters/nieces and nephews were his legal heirs. Hannah King excepted to her two maiden sisters being paid for caring for their brother and keeping house, and most of the others objected, too. Hannah had an attorney (George R. Walker) receive her final share for her.

I also made a copy of a note signed in 1840 by William the elder for money owed Dr. Ladd and finally paid in his estate. I suspect this was the bill for Elizabeth's last illness. Then I copied a bill where William the Elder owed Isaac Studwell (his brother?) for a wagon. By 1844, Isaac was living in Franklin County, Indiana.

The Studwell farm eventually was sold to the Ransom family, too. They owned 1,000 acres at one time, including the Storrs Lot. The deed is in Vol. 31, p. 119 whereby the heirs of William Studwell convey by Sheriff's deed to J. C. Ransom on 19 March 1877; 94.20 acres. Named in the deed is the suit of Ellen M. and George W. Curtis VS Hannah and Samuel King; Sarah M. and Henry Lyon; Fanny Wonsor; Charles T. Wonsor; Miledon Wonsor; and Jane Tilden. Benedict and Sarah Louisa Studwell had quit-claimed their interest in the land on 25 Dec 1875 to David W. Studwell, and he had quit-claimed to Miledon Wonser on the same date(Vol.30,p. 455). The Studwell family surely spent a lot of time switching their land titles around. It appears that Rebecca and Rachel lived on there with brother William and didn't have much support except the income from the farm.

In the marriage records(book 3, old series) there is a marriage for Sarah M. Stidwell to Henry M. Lyon, 24 Oct 1846; and of Benedict Studwell to Eliza Lee on 5 June 1850. She might be the Mrs. Eliza Studwell who died at the County Infirmary in 1896, as reported in the Norwalk Experiment on 6 Oct 1896. She had been there 30 years, and had come from Hartland and was aged 70. There is also a marriage in Book 2, pg. 548 of the new series, for Sylvester Welch to Mrs. Lucy J. Tilden on 6 Oct 1877 in Townsend.

There are these death records in Probate Court:
1/120 - Ellen M. Curtiss d. 2 May 1885 age 47 in Norwalk; married; born Hartland
1/54 - Rebecca Studwell d. 15 Sept 1876 in Hartland age 64; of scrofula; single; born Connecticut
1/148 - Joseph Studwell d. 12 Dec 1888 age 83 in Fitchville; born New York; widowed (he may have been William's brother)

That's my report for now. I hope all of this makes sense. You had a credit of $7.00; I did one hour's work plus $5.00 copies or $12.00, so you owe me $5.00. I'll get the copies this week, if possible.

Sincerely yours,

Henry R. Timman

Dear Ed and Betty,

Thank you for your good wishes for my health, which you have expressed in your letters. I completed my radiation treatments last Thursday (the 3rd), 32 treatments in all instead of the 35 they had originally spoke of. I will see my urologist this afternoon for his follow-up, and the oncologist a week from tomorrow. I think that I'll be scheduled for a bone scan quite soon. Things seem to be going well, for which I thank the Lord.

I also want to thank you for all the material that you've sent recently. I see that I've received three letters or packages since I've written.

I'm unable to solve the Hannah Studwell puzzle. Do we have anything that definitely says that she was born in Cayuga County, NY? I know that the Census reports show her as being born in New York. Possibly, we should look at those counties bordering Connecticut.

We are finally getting our first bit of winter today. We've had very nice weather all fall, with only one snow previously, and that up on the higher mountains (10,000 feet). We had rain yesterday and last night, and this morning we see snow on the mountains, down to maybe the 7,000 foot level.

Colorado relies on the ski industry heavily. Until this week, there hadn't been enough snow to be able to open the ski resorts, even using snow-making equipment. Copper Mountain resort brought in an Indian "Snow-maker", who did his dance (or called to the Great Spirit), and lo, the snows came.

From "The Complete Book of Emigrants, 1607-1660" by Peter Wilson Coldham:

> "1635, 13 Oct, Persons to be transported (from London) aboard the 'Amity', Mr. George Downes, to St. Christopher's:
> ..., Isack Buck 33, ...

I wonder if this isn't the Isaac Buck who located in Scituate, MA in the early 1600's?

Regarding Sprouse graves, I asked the question without considering the possible answer. In looking at the family, I see that the only one not accounted for is the infant daughter, Margaret. I believe most were buried at either Lewis, IA or Timber Lake, SD.

Dear Ted and Stella,

Your letter caught up with us on Wednesday. I'm trying to answer our correspondence before we leave Sunday morning for Fresno. After we leave Santa Barbara, I won't do any more letter writing until we get home.

Thanks for enclosing the pages on the Kann family. We really accumulating considerable information as we go along. Thanks, too, for your offer to put the Leach information on a disk. We are stuck at Ed's great grandfather, John Crum Leach. We have searched and searched, but we are unable at this time to determine the names of his parents. I have placed an ad in the Helper hoping to find something. When we are able to make more progress, I'll certainly accept your offer.

Your decision to sell or trade your home in Parachute must have been difficult to make. How long does it usually take to sell homes in your area?

It's a good thing you counted Stella's prescriptions. Eleven different medications is a lot. It seems as though some bad mixes would certainly have been possible.

It probably will be reassuring to be closer to medical care, but let's hope that you will both soon be ready for just routine care.

Concerning Hannah/Harriet. After receiving Henry Timman's letter, I feel that Hannah was originally called Hannah~~r~~ette. I've asked Mr. Timman to send a copy of William Studwell's will; and if it's possible to copy the original marriage entry, I've asked him for a copy of that, too. I think we'll find you're right about reading Hannah~~r~~ette as Harriet. To really complicate matters, there actually was a Harriet Studwell in Huron County, Ohio.

I remember Hannah as a fairly common name in the book about the Studwells of Fairfield County, Connecticut. Hannah~~r~~ette could have meant little Hannah.

Another complication is the statement by Mary King Block in the short biography about Samuel Ashley King. "There is no record of his first marriage but there was one child, Horace G., born in Indiana in 1853. Mr. King later married Hannah E. King, who was born in New York in July, 1829 . . ." The dates just don't work out for two marriages, especially if Hannahette and Samuel were married January 29, 1852. Ed's aunt, the only surviving child of Elizabeth King Leach, knows something about the Horace story; but she has been totally uncooperative in giving us any help in our search. I don't understand her attitude, but that's the way it is. Eventually, it will all come together.

After we solve the Hannah question, we'll need to find the burial site for Hannah's grandfather, Gabrial Studwell. I hope the cemeteries in Cayuga County, New York, are indexed. I believe Gabrial Studwell was a Revolutinary War soldier. I guess I'll write to the public library in Moravia, New York, and ask for help. We never know where the source of help will be.

We have had very poor luck finding consistent sunny weather in California. Although yesterday and today were both sunny. Yesterday, we drove to Solvang, California. We had a great lunch. It was a real Danish smorgasbord lunch. We really over did it.

Since 1980, Ed and I have been on a low-salt, low-fat, low-cholesterol eating regime, but we really fell off the wagon yesterday. We even topped it off with an ice cream cone. We try to exercise everyday, too; but it's hard to be consistent when we're travelling.

We've decided to stay home next winter. I especially didn't care for the climate in Arizona. Tucson was too dry for my tastes.

As soon as we get any more information, we'll send it along to you. Good luck in selling your home and on your impending move to Grand Junction.

I have enclosed a copy of a recent letter I wrote to Mr. Timman. I have asked him to do a bit more searching on John King. Do you suppose John King became known as Jay King? I suppose it's a possibility since no record of him has turned up in Ohio. I wonder, too, what happened to Samuel's sister and brothers.

I'll close for now.

Sincerely yours,

Ed + Betty.

Dear Betty,

I try to keep track of what I am doing but cannot find a record of exactly what I wrote you although I have your letter describing your John Crum Leach line. I recently found these two items:

Census Vermont 1830 Chittenden Co Westford
Samuel Cromb 100001-20001

Indexto Vermont Land Grants
Samuel Crumby 1782 Burke
Vermont Charters Burk Caledonia Co VT

I can´t find Westford on any of my maps. Also this Samuel does not appear as one of the RI Crumb family as far as I can see.

In the Danforth Genealogy there is a Willis Leach of Fairfield VT b 19Aug1787 d at Fairfax VT 19Mar1875 m Betsey Danforth b 22Jul1786 d 27Dec1862. Betsey´s father moved ca 1790 to Fletcher Franklin Co Vt and was killed by a tree soon after. Their dau Julianna Leach d at Bemis WI. [can´t find that on map either]. Julianna b 1812 m 1841 Philander Bassett who d at Fairfax 1862 so she must have been with a child in WI. Her siblings were Ahira [M], Betsey, Roxanna, Willis D, and Cyrus. Their families are not carried down. Some members of this branch of the family moved over into Franklin Co NY.

I continue to be interested in your research because there is the possibility that J C Leach´s mother might be our Elizabeth Crum b ca 1803/4. If they crossed the Lake and were for a time at Peru area this could be. I have no info about her except the name from a grandson. She is possibly related to Ketchum, Danford, or Ross families.

I am continuing to check records there and if anything turns up will let you know. Don´t think this is much help but every grain of info enlarges the sand pile.

Sincerely,

Janet

Dear Betty,

Just a short note as I wanted it to reach you before you left for Mass. and your visit with your daughter. What a strange problem you have with Joseph Freon!

I had a couple of thoughts, the first that Content named Joseph as her son when he was actually her son in law. But from the age in the 1860 census, at 51, he would have been younger than any of her daughters.

If he were born 1809, he would be the same age as her youngest son, Alonzo, of which neither of us have found any further record beyond the birth. As Joseph Freon was a lawyer,and both Daniel and Daniel Azro Ashley also were lawyers, is there a possibility that the elder Freon's, was somehow associated with Daniel husband of Content and was also a lawyer? It would seem that Daniel's drinking was a long standing problem, and could the Freon's have taken Alonzo to raise, changing his name? Are there any Freon's in Vermont census?

I don't have Content's brothers or sisters. Is it possible that perhaps the Feron's were relatives, a sister's husband, perhaps. Content was born in NH, and I would look for Freon's there as well.

I would ~~xxhx~~ almost have thought that Content would have petitioned to be with a natural daughter rather than an adoptive son, but of course, we have no way to determine closeness in relationships.

Whomever he is, it's certain from her statement that the other of her sons were dead by 1846.

Many states had a state census taken halfway between the federal census, and I'm not certain, but I believe Ohio had a 1845 and 1855 census.

Alpha M.H. may have been separated from John King, and she would be included in the numbered census prior to 1850, without names, in whichever household she lived. John King also may have died. Coming from a family of lawyers, it wouldn't have been difficult for her to take back her maiden name, especially is she had a difficult marriage, but a record of this has to be in some court record. I don't know where she lived after her first marriage.

Are there any DAR lineage lines on Daniel? I know they are full of errors. I have copies of several of my lines, both sides of my family were in New England by 1635, and some of the lines, which passed the DAR requirements when they were submitted are just horrendous. What it does give you, sometimes are more names, places, etc to check.

Oddly enough, I also will be in Mass.but notuntil the 1st weekend in August. It is my mother's 90th birthday, and while she expects her grandchildren, great grandchildren from N.H. and Mass. to be there, she has no idea that the entire Florida group is also coming. My son, daughter in law and family, and my niece, husband and family will all be arriving. An open house for friends and neighbors is planned. It should be a lovely occasion. I only wish my father were still living.

I'm not much help, but I have been thinking. Good luck, Sincerely,

Barbara

Dear Ms Leach,

I saw your inquiry about Hannah Studwell, b 1830 Cayuga, NY in the Computerizer Roots Cellar of the Jan-Feb 1989 issue of Genealogical Helper. For the past two years, I have been collecting data on the Studwell/Stedwell/Steadwell family and their descendants. Prior to this my late aunt Mrs. Olive M. Wheelwright and the late Mr Willis Gregar were collecting data. I have their records. So far, I have no data on Hannah Studwell of Cayuga, NY. I do know that Henry, Gabriel and his three sons, Peter, William and Abraham Studwell moved from Greenwich, Fairfield, CT to Cayuga, NY in 1798. After arriving in Cayuga, NY, Gabriel had two more sons, Joseph and Isaac. I have good data on the children of Henry, Gabriel, William, Abraham and Joseph. Henry had a son, Thomas and I have no data on him. Peter had a son Peter Jr.--I have no other data on Peter. I have no data on Issac. My data show that Henry, Gabriel, William, Abraham, or Joseph had no daughter named Hannah.

I am interested in any data on the descendants of Thomas Stedwell/Studwell who arrived in CT about 1640. I can provide data from Thomas to any of the above named Studwell's. Hope this information will be useful to you. Let us continue the search.

Sincerely
Marion J Stedwell

Mrs. Betty Leach

Interesting new material that needs to be checked.

Dear Mrs. Leach;

I just came across your listing of Hannah Studwell D/o Wm. + Elizabeth ( )S. of Ohio marriage to Samuel Ashley King in The Family Registry Index of LDS library here in my area.

I feel certain your Hannah is identical with Jane Studwell, b. 1830 to William Studwell & his wife Elizabeth, She is the only child of this family of 10 siblings for whom I have no life history.

- Wm. was bpt. at Stamford, Conn. 6 Sept. 1784 but was born 1777, and d. 11 Aug. 1843 at Hartland Ridge, Huron Co. Ohio. He mar. Elizabeth, ( ) b. 1798 d. 15 Sept. 1840 at Hartland Ridge. The Ohio 1850 census (as given to me) includes Rebecca b. 1814, Wm. b. 1817, Betsey Ann b. 1822 Rachel b. 1824 Benedict, b. 1826, Sarah Maria b. 1828 Jane b. 1830 Harriet/Henrietta b. 1833, Fanny b. 1835 and Ellen, b. 1837.

William was the son of Gabriel Studwell b. ca 1745 Stamford & died at Genoa, Cayuga Co., N.Y. 15 April 1831. Gabriel mar. ① in 1764 Agnes, D/o Johannes and Eva (Tingelbach) Britt, b. 20 Feb. 1742 at Lunenburgh, Greene Co., N.Y. She d. by 1780 leaving 7 children including Wm. Gabriel mar ② ——— & had 5 more children, Gabriel was son of Thomas (III) and Jemima ( ) Studwell. Thomas was b. 31 March 1709 at Greenwich, Conn, & d. there early March 1783. Inventory of his estate was taken 15 March 1783. Jemima was still living in 1787. Her surname never found.

Thomas was son of Thomas II b ca. 1664 - d. 1709+

and his wife Martha (   ), and Thomas II was s/o Thomas I, b. est. 1610/20 d. Greenwich, Conn. by May 1669 and his wife Elizabeth (   ) who survived him with two minor children.

Thomas I was one of the original proprietors of Rye N.Y. in 1662 and his 2d house there still stands.

There was a small Studwell family book printed in 1899 - very rare — 100 copies.

Studwells appear to have come here from Kent, Eng. where they are numerous.

The name is a corruption of Norman French d'Estouteville and had already become Stuteville by the late 13th century.

I trust some of this is helpful.

Yours truly

Norman Davis

John and Florence SPROUSE

BRIEF SKETCH OF CRIME OF YELLOWSTONE TRAIL

Seth Orrin Danner was taken into custody Friday, June 8, 1923, and taken to the county jail following the confession of his wife, Iva Danner, which led to the finding of the bodies of John Sprouse and his wife, Florence Sprouse, in a shallow grave near Central Park, a short distance off the Yellowstone trail.

Previous to this, Danner, who had been living with his family at Three Forks, had been arrested for moonshining. After a period in jail he was released only to be again arrested on a charge of grand larceny. He pleaded guilty to both charges immediately after being arraigned, and after being sentenced upon the second charge, Judge B. B. Law showed leniency because of the man's family and paroled him to a local garage owner. The injunction was that the prisoner was to work steadily, keep out of trouble and send his earnings home to his wife for the support of the family.

It was during this period that Mrs. Danner made statements to friends in Three Forks regarding the former life of herself and husband. She told a vague story of crimes committed by her husband, and finally informed a deputy sheriff in Three Forks that Danner had killed two people and had buried them near Central Park. She gave the location, and the officer informed the sheriff of the strange tale.

June 7, officers went to the spot as near as they could locate it, but after digging about for a time found nothing and gave the job up, more or less satisfied that the woman was not telling the truth.

Find Bodies June 8.

The following day, Mrs. Danner offered to accompany the officers to the spot, and when this was done, after a few hours digging the remains of the victims were unearthed. She was brought at once to Bozeman, and in the presence of County Attorney E. A. Peterson and other witnesses, made a full statement of the commission of the crimes. That statement, taken by Court Stenographer G. E. Marvin, was never materially altered or changed during the subsequent proceedings.

Mrs. Danner said she was making the statement, after two years and half following the commission of the crimes, because her conscience had been continually troubling her and she had reached the point where she couldn't stand the strain any longer. The reason, she said, she had not told of the crimes before was through fear of her husband, his repeated threats that he would kill her too, if she ever told anything, and his constant watch over her every action. When he was arrested on two different occasions and was confined in jail, she said she got nerve enough to tell what she knew. She said she had made up her mind at other times to inform the authorities about the crimes, but didnt know how to go about it.

Relationship of Danners.

Mrs. Danner said her father had died when she was two years old, and that Danner, her present husband, had married her mother. Therefore, he was her stepfather, as well as her husband. It was also learned that the father of Iva was a cousin of Danner. His name, too, was Danner. A strain of Cherokee Indian blood is in the family and well defined.

~~SPROUSE, John and Florence~~

After Iva's mother died, the family continued to live in the little Kansas town for a number of years. Then one day in the summer of 1916, Danner took Iva, who was then 14 years old, and Florence, his own daughter, and a half sister of Iva, and left the country in an automobile. In the fall of the same year, the three turned up in Dillon, Montana, where Danner worked in a garage. He was arrested in December of that year and remained in jail for a period. Upon his release, December 24, he married Iva, the day before their first child was born.

Led a Roaming Existence.

Continuing her statement, Mrs. Danner, (Iva) said they lived in different places in Montana and North Dakota, where her husband made a precarious living, doing odd jobs around garages, working in the threshing fields, and hunting and trading. They lived a nomadic life and never had a settled home. During the summer of 1920, the Danners, then with two children of their own and little Florence, met the Sprouses, John and Florence, in a small town in the interior of North Dakota. They became friendly and the two families planned to journey westward in the fall of the year, where the men would seek work. Mr. and Mrs. Sprouse went on ahead and stopped a few days with Mr. Sprouse's mother near Mobridge, where they later met the Danners and the journey was continued till they reached Central Park and pitched their camp. The details of the trip across the country were uninteresting and without incident of note, excepting the usual hardships attending camp life, during the cold autumn nights.

Two Families Make Camp.

The two families journeyed in two machines, the Sprouses in one with an improvised truck in the rear, and the Danners in a touring car. At Central Park, where they reached about the latter part of October of the year 1920, they pitched their tents side by side in a small clump of trees and undergrowth about 75 feet from the Yellowstone trail and hidden from travel excepting to close observers. The men hunted, fished and trapped and made some money by the sale of their efforts.

Everything seemed to be harmonious, and according to the statement made by Mrs. Danner, there was no discord anywhere between the two families.

On the evening of November 14, Danner returned to camp alone. Earlier in the day the two men had gone in different directions to look after their traps along the marsh and river bank. When Danner appeared, Mrs. Sprouse, who was standing in front of her tent, inquired about her husband. Danner gave an evasive answer and started to cut wod to cook the evening meal. Mrs. Sprouse went into her tent for a few minutes and on coming out again asked Danner about her husband. For some reason, she seened apprehensive and worried that he didn't come home for supper. Again Danner gave some answer which was not assuring and Mrs. Sprouse showed signs of discontent.

Death of Mrs. Sprouse.

Arising from his woodchopping, with the small hand axe in his hand, he walked over to Mrs. Sprouse and struck her in the head. As she fell, according to the statement of Mrs. Danner, he said, "There, I guess she knows now where Jack is." Bending over the prostrate form of the woman, he called to his wife to hand him a "whang" string lying on the ground which she handed to him. He then tied the leather string about the woman's neck, picked up the body and carried it into the Sprouse tent, threw it on the bed.

Evidence produced at the trial of the case, showed there were two distinct marks of the ax on the skull. The first one, claimed to have been made in the prescence of Mrs. Danner, although she said she turned her head when the blow was given, and the second which was on the top of the skull. The last one caused death.

Danner told his wife that if she ever told what she had just seen he would do the same thing to her. She said she was too frightened and stunned to say or do anything and went into her tent. Danner followed later and all went to bed. Mrs. Danner said she couldn't sleep, but that her husband did. About 10 o'clock, she said, Danner awoke and left the tent. He was gone for a couple of hours, when she heard him returning. She said he went to the Sprouse tent and she heard something fall on the ground inside the tent.

Shows Wife Both Bodies.

Danner went back to bed and to sleep. The next morning, he called to his wife, and opening up the flap of the Sprouse tent, showed her the body of Sprouse lying on the floor just inside the opening. A gunny sack was over his head. On the bed was the body of the woman. Again Danner cautioned his wife to say nothing about it, and they would soon get out of that part of the country.

During the entire day of November 15, the Danners remained about camp. The tent of the Sprouses was closed and the children were told that Mr. and Mrs. Sprouse had taken a train and gone west.

That night, the Danner's went to bed as usual, Mrs. Danner not to sleep, but Danner soon in sound slumbers. About midnight, Danner awoke, left the tent and was heard to be busily digging and working within ten feet in the rear. After an hour or so, he was heard to go to the Sprouse tent and then return to the place where he had been working. Listening, Mrs. Danner heard him make another trip, and then she heard the noise made by a shovel as if dirt was being moved. She also heard the dropping of small stones and the noise of rubbish and cans being thrown about. When the noises ceased, Danner returned to bed and again to sleep.

Buries Victims at Midnight.

The next morning, Mrs. Danner saw the pile of newly turned earth and rubbish heaped up, and instinctively knew what had been done. She said nothing. All the next day, November 16, was spent in camp. Danner ransacked and examined all of the belongings of his victims. Mrs. Danner said she helped. What they wanted they set to one side, and the remainder of the stuff was burned. At night they pulled down their tents, picked up all the belongings of their own and the Sprouses, put them in the two cars, and Mrs. Danner driving one, and Danner the other, left the scene of the crime about midnight.

They journeyed west along the Yellowstone trail and at 3 o'clock in the morning reached Old Town, near Three Forks. There Danner disposed of the Sprouse car and got a job in a garage at Three Forks.

Made Home in Three Forks.

The family remained there till the confession of Mrs. Danner and the finding of the bodies, two and a half years later. Three Forks is on the Yellowstone trail, not more than 15 miles from the scene of the crimes, and during that period Danner is known to have passed the graves scores of times on his trips back and forth from Bozeman.

Mrs. Danner filed a bill for divorce from her husband a few days after making her remarkable confession, and following the trial in October, she married Jim Troglio, a baker in Three Forks. Several months ago, the couple disappeared and their whereabouts are uncertain. It is said Mrs. Troglio, formerly Mrs. Danner, is living in Seattle.

After the confession made by Mrs. Danner, the court made provisions for the care of the children, there being four at this time, including Florence. The latter was taken by her uncle, and is now living in Spokane. The other three children were taken to the state home at Twin Bridges.

DANNER PAYS EXTREME PENALTY FOR HIS CRIME

Seth Orrin Danner paid the penalty for the murder of Mrs. Florence Sprouse, this morning at 2:18 o'clock, when he was hanged by the neck until he was dead. Within a minute after the trap was sprung, there was not a pulsation, and without any noise but the spring of the steel metal, absolute quiet prevailed till the physician pronounced the man dead. The official time was 2:19. (Excerpt)

NOTES ON THE KANN FAMILY

I. In late 1977, Alf Hulm of Timber Lake sold an insurance policy to Louise Kann of Britton, SD. She remembered my mother, Mrs. Jens Grage, from many years ago. Mother wrote her, and received an answer in early January 1978. Mother's note in her diary, dated 1-11-78, was a summary of that answer apparently, and is quoted:

"Letter from Mrs. L. Kann - 1-11-78
751 1st St
Britton, S. D. 57430

"Louise Kann - Wife of Sylvester Kann who died in 1958. His parents were Mahlon & Mary Kann. Louise wrote they have (she has) a son living on home place, his wife works in the Britton Hospital, their children: a daughter who is a junior in high School, son in 8th grade, daughter in 5th grade and daughter in 2nd grade. Also, a daughter Lorraine who lives in Britton, her children are a son Scott who is a junior in high school, son Mark a freshman, Chad in 5th grade.

"Merle's children's names are Sandra, James, Nancy & Janet.

"George - brother to Sylvester also dead. Wife living in Britton and children around there.

"Louise said she had worked at hospital many years before retiring on account of ill health - now stays nights with a 93 yr. old woman."

II. On 12 May 1987, when I copied the above information of almost a decade ago, I also copied all entries for Kann from the current telephone book. These included the following names, all listed under the Britton, SD heading:

HISTORY OF THE SPROUSE FAMILY

DESCENDANTS OF CHARLES L. SPROUSE AND ALPA KING SPROUSE

I. Charles L. Sprouse and Alpa King were married on 30 May 1875, possibly in Pottawattamie Co., IA.

A. Charles was a son of Lewis Sprouse and Cynthia Doolittle Sprouse, born in 1840/41, probably in Cabell Co., (W)VA. ~~Lawrence Co., OH; or Jefferson Co., IL~~. Lewis and Cynthia were married in Lawrence Co., OH on 21 Apr 1822. Cynthia was a daughter of Luther and Lucy Doolittle of Cabell Co., (W)VA. Both of Charles' parents probably were born in PA. The Sprouse and Doolittle families appear to have moved from PA to southern OH to Cabell Co., (W)VA. Lewis and Cynthia moved on to Moore's Prairie Township in Jefferson County, IL in 1841, traveling down the Ohio River. Charles was probably a new baby at this time.

B. Alpa King was the oldest daughter and third child of Samuel A. King and Hannah Studwell (Stedwell?) King. She was born 10 May 1858 in Tama Co., IA, moving with the family to Pottawattamie Co. in 1869.

C. Eight children were born to this union, five sons and three daughters. One of the daughters died as an infant.

D. The Sprouse family was enumerated in the 1880 census for Cass Co., IA. In 1883, they moved to Marshall Co., Dakota Territory, then in the mid-1890's moved back to Iowa (Lewis, Cass Co. area). In 1910, they homesteaded near Firesteel, Dewey Co., SD on the Southeast Quarter of Section 6, Township 17 North, Range 23 East of the Black Hills Meridian.

II. Samuel L. Sprouse was born in Iowa (Cass Co.?) in about 1876. He served with the Army during the Spanish American War and/or the Philippine Insurrection. He died, probably in 1901, in the Philippines in the service of his country. I have no record of his ever being married.

III. John (Jack) W. Sprouse was born in Iowa about 1879. He and his wife, Florence, were murdered in Montana, in 1920, near Bozeman. They had been traveling with another couple named Danner looking for day work. While camping near the Yellowstone River, trapping for fur, Danner killed John with an axe. Back at the camp, he also killed Florence in his wife's presence. Danner was eventually hung` for the murder of Florence based on evidence provided by Mrs. Danner. John and Florence had no children, as far as I know.

DRAFT

IV. Hannah I. Sprouse, born about 1882, in Iowa, was enumerated in the 1900 census for the Havana, ND area (where she was visiting or staying with her aunt, Elizabeth King Leach). She married Everett Howe and they lived in Britton, SD in 1923 (she was a house guest of Sam and Ce[illegible]lia Thompson of Aberdeen, SD, when Marvin E. and Sylvia Dahlgren Sprouse visted the Thompsons while on their honeymoon). I don't know how large the Howe family was, but two sons were on the Los Angeles police force, one, named Charles, was once a division chief. Another son, Merlin, attended college (possibly in Jamestown, ND) on an athletic scholarship. The family had relocated to Van Nuys, CA by Jan 1929. Also, I believe that two members of the family (probably grandsons of Hannah) were drowned during the 1950's when a fishing boat operated for Frank A. Sprouse sank off the coast of Oregon.

V. Mary (Mamie) Sprouse was probably born in about 1884 in Marshall Co., DT. She married James V. Sampson on 9 Sep 1902. They had four children, including Wanda, who lived in Palo Cedro, CA in 1985; Alice Ann of St. Joseph, MO; Dean who was last heard of as living in Ft. Wayne, IN; and the youngest, Marvele, who lived in Atlantic, IA in 1985. Alice Ann was probably born about 1925 while Marvele was born on 1 Dec 1927.

A. Marvele married Larry Mallon on 30 Jan 1948. They have six children: Steve, born in Jun 1949; Lonnie, born in Oct 1951; Renee, the only daughter was born in Mar 1956; Jim, born in Feb 1960; and Deric and Eric, twins born in Aug 1961. Marvele and Larry had three grandsons and one granddaughter as of 18 Jul 1985.

VI. Charles A. Sprouse was born near Britton, Marshall Co., Dakota Territory in 1888, and lived in nearby Spain, SD. He died in 1920, allegedly from smoking too much, and was buried in the Timber Lake, SD cemetary. I have no information that he was ever married.

VII. Maggie Sprouse, the sister, Maggie, mentioned in a letter of Mamie's is presumed to be the infant daughter mentioned in Alpa King Sprouse's obituary. Maggie was born between Charles (1888) and Marvin (1892). "Maggie" is probably familiar for Margaret. I have no further information on her.

VIII. Marvin Edwin Sprouse was born near Britton, in 1892. He moved with the family to Lewis, IA in the 1890's and to SD in 1910. In 1917, he was among the first contingent of soldiers called from Dewey County, SD, and served nineteen months with the Machine Gun Company, 118th Infantry, 30th Division, American Expeditionary Forces in France. In Jun 1923, he and Sylvia Geneva Dahlgren, daughter of Theodore Lars and Nellie Jenness Dahlgren of Timber Lake, SD were married. Five children were born to this union: Marvin Edwin, Jr. and Marvel Sylvia, (twins); Theodore Charles; Darlene Joyce and Rudolph Merle Sprouse.

A. Marvin Edwin Sprouse, Jr. was born at home near

DRAFT

Timber Lake on 10 Mar 1924. A premature twin baby, he lived for nine days, dying 19 Mar 1924, and was buried in the Timber Lake Cemetary.

B. Marvel Sylvia Sprouse, twin sister to Marvin, was born the next day, 11 Mar 1924 at home. She lived only a few hours, dying the day she was born. She and her brother are buried side by side at Timber Lake.

C. Theodore Charles Sprouse was born 15 Dec 1925, at home (on the Pearson place, southeast of Timber Lake). His marriage to Rebecca Maria Espinoza at Sidney, NE in 1966 ended in divorce in 1970 at Pueblo, CO. In 1980, he married Stella Marie Gomez Bonino at Aurora, CO, and after retiring, they moved to Parachute, CO. No children were born to either marriage.

D. Darlene Joyce Sprouse was born in Mobridge, Walworth Co., SD on 31 Jul 1927. She married Wayne Arthur Kingsley (b. 5 Feb 1926, the son of Arthur and Bertha Kingsley) on 18 Oct 1948. Three children were born of this marriage: Sylvia Bertha, Wayne Arthur, Jr., and Nancy Naomi Kingsley. Darlene and Wayne were divorced on 12 Sep 1978.

1. Sylvia Bertha Kingsley was born 29 Nov 1949. She married Samuel George Wheatcroft (b. 15 Sep 1948) on 13 Jul 1971. They have four children: Cary Scott, born 15 Nov 1970; Connie Gayle, born 5 Mar 1972; Cami Jo, born 17 Jan 1974 and Sammi Wynn, born 12 May 1976. These four children were all born in Wenatchee, Chelan Co., WA.

2. Wayne Arthur Kingsley, Jr., born 14 Aug 1951, married Jodi Marie Therien (b. 29 Mar 1958) on 15 Jun 1979. They have no children. NOTE: Jodi and Jay Therien's birth name was LINDSTROM. They took their step-father's name, THERIEN, when their mother remarried in 1957/8.

3. Nancy Naomi Kingsley was born 26 Jul 1955. She and Jay Dee Therien (b. 22 Dec 1953) were married on 29 Sep 1979. They are now divorced. They had three children: Jeremiah John, born 7 Aug 1980; Larissa Rose, born 2 Sep 1981 and Naomi Lynn who was born on 9 Apr 1983. These children were also born in Wenatchee, Chelan Co., WA.

This information was compiled by Theodore Charles Sprouse, 55 Rosewood Way, Parachute, CO 81635, on 7 Mar 1988. So far as I know, it is correct. Where I have made assumptions, I have tried to say so. I would appreciate receiving any corrections of errors, and especi- additional information that anyone has.

Robert Whitcomb, Mehitable, w. of Stephen Chittenden, Ruth, m. 17 Jan. 1677, Joseph Garrett, not Gannett, as print. in Geneal. Reg. IX, 316, and Deborah, w. of Henry Merritt.

The "Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol. 4", Virkus, listed the following STUDWELLs on pg. 722 under MEAD:

8. Thomas Studwell	(1620?-1670) from Eng. ca 1641
7. Thomas	(1650?-ante 1734)
6. Thomas	(1709-83)
5. Joseph	(d 1784)
4. Joseph	(1777-1865)
3. John J.	(1813-84)
2. Sarah Frances	(1838-1919)

The numbering in the last paragraph refers to generations back from the listed "MEAD". Sarah Frances was probably the BUCK who married a MEAD.

Mr. George does not have a copier. I haven't asked to take books out to copy pages. He didn't make the offer when I asked if he had a copier, but then, he didn't know me yet .

My half-sister, Jane, lives near Aberdeen, SD. I asked her to check the library there for any genealogies on the King family. She found some material, which I'm enclosing. I think this may be from a history of Marshall County or of Britton.

One interesting item regarding Samuel King's marriages to Hannah and/or Harriet Studwell (Marriage record shows marriage to Harriet on 29 Jan 1852) is in the enclosed biography of Samuel King, which says that Samuel was married previous to his marriage to Hannah and that Harold was born of that marriage. Harriet's 1852 marriage and Harold's 1853 birth date could indicate marriage to both girls.

Mary KING Block seems to have written these biographies, in or after 1975. I wonder if she's still living, she'd be 68 now. I'll try to ask my sister to check the Aberdeen phone book to see if she's listed in Aberdeen or Britton.

Did you meet any of the Kings or Kanns in Britton, this summer. Also, did you happen to see any Sprouse graves?

I appreciate your concern about my health. I'm doing quite well, I am trusting in God, that the treatments will be effective. And I hope that all is well with you both.

Yours sincerely,

Ned

The foregoing inscriptions, together with other Sharpsteen inscriptions on the Sharpsteen lot in the Genoa Village Cemetery, were copied in August, 1920, by Frank Avery Skilton, of Auburn, N. Y., who visited the cemetery with his wife, Mrs. Clara M. Skilton, for the purpose of preserving the inscriptions for use in genealogical research.

The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, Vol. LIV. No. 3, (July, 1923), beginning on page 227, contains the Gravestone Inscriptions, Village Cemetery, Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., Copied and arranged by Claud F. Lester, Corresponding Member of the N. Y. Gen. and Biog. Society for Cayuga Co., N. Y.

On page 238 of said issue appear the following inscriptions:

Shuttle, George W., 1841 - 1892.
(Mary F. Sharpsteen, his wife, 1843-

Either Mr. Lester misread the name of George W. Stuttle, or the printer made a typographical error.

Mr. Skilton intended to arrange his large collection of cemetery inscriptions for publication, but he did not live to carry out his plan. They are in frequent use in connection with the genealogical research of the present researcher, Mrs. Clara M. Skilton.

Jessup inscriptions appear on page 232 of the July , 1923, issue of the N. Y. Gen. and Biog. Record.

As the N. Y. Gen. and Biog. Record is available in the New York Public Library, these Jessup inscriptions are not included in the present report, but the inscription of Amos Jessup , who died May 24, 1832, aged 28 years, 1 mo., 14 days, will be found there, on page 232.

Steadwell, Stedwell. Studwell: Descendants of Thomas Studwell I, ca. 1620-1669, of Greenwich, Connecticut/Rye, New York by 1656

Assembled by Marion J. Stedwell

Thomas Studwell I(c. 1620, 1669), was probably for Kent County, England and was first recorded as living in Greenwich, CT, in 1656. He is the ancestor of all the persons with the Steadwell, Stedwell or Studwell name in Colonial New England.

Those born to the Studwell surname number under 2,500. Nearly 2,200 of them are recorded in this book. Many descendants of other surnames (through daughters) are included. Beginning with Thomas Studwell I, the book traces his descendants down through 11 generations, grouping the information by family units and listing for each unit the full name of the Studwell descendant, including married and maiden names if female. Birth, death and marriage dates are shown if known. Vital statistics such as date and place of birth, death and marriage are shown for the descendant and spouse. Also included is information about other marriages, and whatever biographical information could be obtained. A list of children is included, giving vital statistics as with the parents. Finally, a list of sources is presented at the end of each family unit. The many family units presented in the book are organized according to the Register System of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, allowing a line to be traced forward or backward, generation by generation. An appendix lists over 150 sources used in the preparation of this work, and an every name index is also provided. 1996, 306pp., 8.5x11, append., bibl., index, paper, $45.00 #S711

Dear Ed and Betty,

You requested a copy of Heritage Books order sheet on the Steadwell, Stedwell, Studwell book. It is printed on the back side of this letter. I received an accounting from them this week and they say that 75 books were sold between September and December. I think that is very good but certainly not in the best seller class. I do have a two copies that I can let you have at $45.00 each including postage.

Your Christmas letter tells of quite a Genealogy search trip. I hope it was very successful. Margaret and I are currently searching records in Sweden and Norway for her ancestors. So far we have had some success. I have been ordering tapes from the LDS Library in Salt Lake through the local LDS History Center. I also want to search for some of my Nicholas ancestors who came from Wales about 1870. I need to visit the local National Archive Center in Pittsfield, MA to try to locate the family on a passenger list. I have narrowed it down to a one year period of arrival. Supposedly, the mother-in-law came over with the family.

I hope all is well with you. We wish you a Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

Marion and Margaret

Christmas, 1990

Dear Betty and Ed,

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New year. The years seem to fly by. The picture was taken in Sept at Mt Rainier Park while on vacation with friends from VA who used to live near here. We are well for now. Collection of data on the Stidwell/Studwell genealogy continues. Have you come across a George W. Stidwell who was married in Huron, Ohio - possible son of William or another of Gabriel's sons. I have traced his descendants into Calif. He is a possible brother of Benedict.

We hope you had a good year.

Dear Ed and Betty,

Hope you have a Merry Christma and a Happy New Year. We are glad you took time on your trip to visit us. We may take a trip to WA next year with some Friends. We Volunteer 2 days a week at the Hospital gift shop. The Stidwell Stidwell genealogy is progressing. I had Henry Timmons look up data on the 4 Stidwells in Norwalk you found. They are descendants in the Gabriel line Thru Benedict. Thanks for Findin them for me. We had a great Vacation cruise/Tour of Alaska in August

Dear Betty and Ed,

We have had a good year. our Daughter is home for a 1 yr furlough from her mission in India, On the Genealogy, I have made little progress on the Stadwell/Stockwell family, Made good progress on the ancestors. Please note the change in my thinking about Gabriel. Date wise, he must have had a second wife, So you will probably want to change your records unless you have already made the change. at Salt Lake, did you look up Stadwell/Stadwelz Please send me any data you locate or References.

Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New year

Dear Ed and Betty,

Over 100 copies of the STEADWELL, STEDWELL, STUDWELL Genealogy have been sold. Any New data on your branch? We attended my 50th College reunion at Boulder, CO in May. Also had a Stedwell family reunion. We have been to two Elder Hostels this year, our daughter "Betty Ann" was re-assigned from India to mission headquarters in Reading, PA. Our Health is holding UP - NO Major Problems. Hope all is well with you.

Merry Christmas and

Dear Betty and Ed,

Hope you have a Happy Holiday Season. We are both well and have had a good but busy year. I have had a productive year on the Studwell side of the descendants of Thomas Studwell. I was able to obtain a list of Studwells in the USA with Addresses and Telephone Numbers. Many are very interested in Family genealogy and History. We Traveled a lot and do keep busy with our Volunteer activities. Our Children (2 girls) are both well although unmarried. No Grand children.

If you have any Updates to your branch Please send them.

Love
